■ How to Submit an Ex Parte Application

Ex Parte Applications are Generally Disfavored

Ex parte applications should be used only if there is a genuine emergency. Most courts do not like ex parte applications because they create a risk that the opposing party will not have an adequate opportunity to present his or her arguments to the judge. As a result, most ex parte applications are denied. If you are asking the Court to decide an issue that is not time-sensitive, you should file a noticed motion and set a hearing date. This will give all the parties in your lawsuit an opportunity to file briefs and argue the issue. If you want to file a motion, please see Public Counsel's guide on "How to Submit a Motion."

What is an Ex Parte Application?

An ex parte application is an urgent request to the Court. "Ex parte" means "by one party." An ex parte application differs from a motion because it does not require you to set a hearing date.

What Do You Need to Do BEFORE You File an Ex Parte Application?

Before filing an ex parte application, you must make a reasonable, good faith effort to call the attorneys for all the other parties in your lawsuit – or, if the parties are not represented, you must try to call the parties themselves. In your phone call, you must discuss the following:

- 1) You must tell the opposing attorney (or unrepresented party) three things:
 - a. That you will file an ex parte application with the Court,
 - b. The date on which you intend to file the ex parte application, and
 - c. The issue you will raise in your ex parte application.
- 2) You must also ask the opposing attorney (or unrepresented party) if he or she objects to your ex parte application. If he objects, you must ask him why he is objecting so that you can tell the Court this information.

Remember: The Local Rules require you to make a "reasonable, good faith effort" to call opposing counsel (or unrepresented parties) and discuss the points listed on this page.

Make sure to take notes on any conversations you have so that you can fill out your declaration form accurately.

3) You should confirm you have the opposing attorney's (or unrepresented party's) name, address, telephone number and e-mail address. You will need to provide those to the Court in a declaration.

How Do You File an Ex Parte Application?

To file an ex parte application in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, you will need to prepare the following documents:

- 1) Ex Parte Application
- 2) Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Ex Parte Application
- 3) Declaration in Support of Ex Parte Application
- 4) (Proposed) Order Granting Ex Parte Application
- 5) Proof of Service by Mail

A sample of each document is included in this packet.

Description of Each Document

1) Ex Parte Application

The ex parte application explains to the Court what you are asking the Court to do and why the Court needs to act on an emergency basis. In your application, you must state that you contacted all the opposing attorneys (or unrepresented parties) and notified them that you would be filing an ex parte application.

2) Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Ex Parte Application

The memorandum of points and authorities includes any legal authorities and arguments that support your ex parte application. The memorandum of points and authorities must not exceed 7000 words. If you choose to handwrite your Memorandum of Points and Authorities, it may not may not exceed 25 pages. For more information about formatting the length of your Memorandum of Points and Authorities, please refer to Central District Local Rule 11-6.1.

3) Declaration in Support of Ex Parte Application

A declaration is a sworn statement to the Court where you write the facts that support your ex parte application.

4) (Proposed) Order Granting Ex Parte Application

This is an order for the judge to sign if he or she wants to grant your ex parte application. You write this order as if you were the judge. You do not sign the proposed order—instead, you leave a space for the judge's signature.

5) Proof of Service by Mail

In this document, you or someone else will swear to the Court that you have mailed a copy of the ex parte application to the opposing counsel or unrepresented party.

Federal Pro Se Clinic • Roybal Courthouse • 255 East Temple Street, Suite 170 • Los Angeles, CA 90012 • (213) 385-2977 ext. 270 Open on most Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. By appointment only.

Formatting Your Ex Parte Application

By following the instructions below, you will comply with the format requirements of the Local Rules for the Central District of California:

- 1) Pleading Paper: Ex parte applications must be written on pleading paper. "Pleading paper" is letter-sized (8.5" x 11") paper that has the numbers 1-28 typed down the left-hand side. You can download a template for pleading paper in Microsoft Word format from Public Counsel's website:
 - Go to https://publiccounsel.org/services/federal-court/forms-guides-samples/
 - Find "MS Word Pleading Paper" in the list of forms. You can also download a caption page by clicking "MS Word Pleading Paper Caption Page."
- Font and Margins: 14 pt size font (suggested fonts: Times New Roman or Arial); 1-inch margins.
- 3) Name and Contact Information: Starting on Line 1, write your name, address, and phone number. Write "Plaintiff in Pro Per" or "Defendant in Pro Per" underneath your personal information.
- 4) Line 8 or below: Type the name of the court (UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT). On the next line, write the district name (CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA).
- 5) Party Names: Below the name of the court and district, write the names of the plaintiff and the defendant(s).
- 6) Case Number: Your case number goes to the right of the party names. Be sure to include all of the letters that make up the judges' initials.

- 7) Title of Document: Under the Case Number, write the title of your document. For example, if you are asking the Court to move a hearing date for a motion to dismiss, your title would be, "Ex Parte Application for Continuance of Hearing on Motion to Dismiss."
- 8) Date and Signature: When you have finished writing your ex parte application or supporting document, write the date, your signature and your name.

9) Footer and Page Numbers: Type the title of your document in the footer. Be sure to number every page.

Filing and Serving Your Ex Parte Application

When you have completed your ex parte application, you must file it with the Civil Intake Division of the courthouse in which the judge who is hearing your ex parte application is located. File 1 original and 1 copy of each document with the Civil Intake Division. In addition, send 1 copy of each document to the opposing counsel or unrepresented party by mail on the same day that you file.

You may file your ex parte application with the Court in person or by mail. Keep in mind that mailing your ex parte application may delay the date on which it is filed. The addresses for the Civil Intake Division for the Central District of California courthouses are as follows:
