ORDER

Before: CALLAHAN, DESAI, and DE ALBA, Circuit Judges.

Appellants' motion to stay the mandate (Dkt. No. 141) is GRANTED. See Fed. R. App. P. 41(d)(1). The mandate is stayed until December 10, 2026, to allow the Solicitor General to decide whether to file a petition for writ of certiorari. If, within that period, Appellants advise the Clerk of this Court that a petition for certiorari has been filed, or an extension of time to do so has been granted, then the mandate shall be further stayed until the time to file the petition has expired, or if a petition has been filed, until final disposition of the matter by the Supreme Court. Appellants must promptly notify the Clerk of this Court in the event the Solicitor General determines not to seek certiorari before December 10, 2026, in which case the stay will be lifted immediately.
